

How I Love Your Ways, O Lord!

for unison choir (or cantor), congregation and keyboard

Psalms 119: 137-144 (paraphrase D.P.)

THE LARK IN THE CLEAR AIR
Irish traditional, arr. by David E. Poole

Voices

1

solo or section:

Full of right-eous-ness are you, O
zeal, O Lord, has worn me and des-pis-ed though I
and dis-tress have come to

keyboard

1

5

Lord.
out;
am,
me;

All— your ways
My en - e - mies
I will re - mem -
But your com - mands

and laws are per - fect.
ig - nore your words.
- ber all your pre - cepts.
are my de - light.

Right - eous
your Ev - er -
Your

8

are the sta - tutes you lay down,
prom - i - ses have pro - ven true,
last - ing is your right - eous - ness,
sta - tutes are for - ev - er right.

speak - ing truth and wor - thy of
and so I hold them close in my
And in your law a - bides all O - pen my eyes that I might

11 optional descant (3rd and 4th refrains):

11 Choir and Cong: How I love your ways O Lord! You have set your laws with - in - my trust. heart. truth. live.

How I love your ways O Lord! You have set your law with - in - my

15 heart; And your right - eous - ness shall nev - er fail, giv - ing me strength and hope all my heart; And your right - eous - ness shall nev - er fail, giv - ing me strength and hope all my

19 days.

days.

My Low - ly Trou - ble

(fine)