

(Perpetual) License Agreement

David E. Poole (hereafter referred to as “composer”) does hereby license _____ (hereafter referred to as “licensee”) to make unlimited copies of composer’s composition titled _____ for which right licensee agrees to pay composer a flat fee of $_____.

Remittance shall be made to:

David Poole
2815 Indian Farm Ln. NW
Albuquerque, NM 87107-2639

Composer agrees to furnish licensee with a copy of the manuscript (including full score and, if applicable, bulletin-sized congregational part) via e-mail or standard mail.

Licensee shall have the right to perform the above-mentioned work as often as it chooses and to reproduce the printed score in any type of publication so long as said publication is for the exclusive use of the parish or related organization. Licensee agrees that it will not give, loan or otherwise distribute the licensed material outside of its own parish or related organization.

Recordings of the material may be made by licensee for archival and in-house use only. This agreement expressly excludes any further mechanical rights (i.e. the right to make recordings to be sold for profit). Such rights must be negotiated separately with composer.

Additional stipulations (if any)

We, the undersigned, agree to the terms set forth above.
