

IV. Blind Thine Eyes

words of Bahá'u'lláh (1817-1892)

David E. Poole

chant-like ♩ = 50

Tenor

unison mp Blind thine eyes that thou may'st behold My beau-ty;

Bass

unison mp Stop thine ears that thou may'st heark-en,

T

hear - ken to My voice; — Emp - ty thy - self of all

B

heark - en to the sweet mel - o - dy of my voice; Emp - ty — all

T

learn - ing and par - take, par - take of my know - ledge;

B

learn - ing and par - take, par - take of my know - ledge;

T

mf Sanc-ti - fy thy-self from rich - es and ob - tain a last - ing share from the

B

Sanc-ti - fy thy-self from rich - es and ob - tain a share from the

Blind Thine Eyes

12

T f o - cean of my e - ter - nal wealth. Blind thine eyes to all save My beau - ty;

B O - cean of wealth. Blind thine eyes to all save beau - ty;

16

T stop thine ears to all save My word; Emp - ty thy - self of all

B stop thine ears to all save My word; Emp - ty all

19

T learn - ing mf save the know - ledge, the know - ledge of Me

B learn - ing save the know - ledge, the know - ledge of Me that 22

T mf a pure heart, an at - ten - tive ear p thou may'st

B with a vi - sion clear, an at - ten - tive ear

25

T en - ter the courts of My hol - i - ness.

B en - ter, en - ter, en - ter.